WE'RE HEADING TO NZ!

Dat 1 August, 30th

Hit on road!

Finally, the day has come. Six Kiyosato JHS students and ten Kiyo -sato HS students joined the departing ceremony at Planet '97. It will be a super exciting trip!

Do we have a rainmaker?

When we were above the sky, it was clear. Unfortunately, we had heavy rain in Tokyo because of the typhoon. Weather report said it's going to be cloudy and rainy also in New Zealand. I hope the event goes on as planned...

Currency exchange

We exchanged JPY to NZD at Narita airport. It's interesting to see foreign money. First look at NZD made us feel like they look like toy money because they are colorful and fancy.

Fish or Chicken?

Last thing to do on that day was to board a flight to NZ. There were some troubles and They took us a long time, but we figured them out. In the aircraft, we had dinner. There were two choices, fish or chicken. I chose chicken for my muscles btw :)
